

The Severall Places Where you May hear News.

At Childbed when fine Gossips meet fair Stories there are told,
 But if they get a Cup too much their Tongues they cannot hold

To Church fine Ladies doe resort new fashions for to spy And others go to Church sometimes to shew their Bravery

At Market when good housewives meet their Mistresses being done Together they will crack a Peck before they can go home

The Hot house makes a rough skin smooth and doo hir beautify These Gossips use it overa weeks their skins to purify

The Bakehouse is a place you know where Maids a Story hold And of their Mistresses will prae they must not be contrould

At the Conduite striving for their turne the Quarrell grows so great That up in Arms they are at last and one another beat

At Alehouse you see, how joviall they be With every one his Nodden
 For all the Scull and the Belly be full None of them will be jogging

In washing at the Riverside good Housewives take Delight But colding Sluts care not to wash like wrangling Queens they fight